

The do not call list was generated for a purpose. If individuals have signed up not to be called, disturbed or harrassed in their own home, then their decision should be respected. I am happy with the do not call list. I do not want it changed in New Jersey.